

Homestay Policy

Flex Academy aims to work within the guidelines provided by the BC Ministry of Education in relation to homestay locations for its international students. BC K-12 International Student Homestay Guidelines \(2018\)

As per the guidelines, Flex Academy provides a list of homestay program providers for international parents and students. Parents and/or international students may consider working with any of the following homestay providers or, alternatively, place their student with a relative or family friend.
