

Violent Threat Risk Assessment (VTRA)

This page provides information to help assess whether a threat is Imminent or Not Imminent and the protocol to follow.

A threat is an expression of intent to do harm or act out violently against self, someone else or something. Threats may be verbal, written, drawn, posted on the Internet or made by gesture. Threats are serious, and it is important to determine whether or not a threat poses an imminent risk.

Definitions

- Imminent Threat
 - If a weapon is involved or a serious or plausible exists threat within the building
- Not Imminent Threat
 - Outside the building
 - Threats, threat-related, or worrisome behaviour indicating potential harm to self or others (speech, action, assignments, etc) is serious but not imminent. Please discuss with your LG RA to help assess and determine the next steps.
