Crew Student Profile

An HCOS Crew student is

COURAGEOUS

They like to try new things with their friends, learn through experience and taking small risks. They may or may not be the first to try something, but they are willing to give it a shot and encourage others to try it out too.

COLLABORATIVE

They like to make new friends, work in community, build relationships, and celebrate the wins of others. They enjoy seeing what their classmates have created, participating in activities together, and connecting with people their own age.

RESPONSIVE

They are learning how to take and apply helpful feedback to improve their understanding. They can be flexible in how they do things or accept change when things don't necessarily go as planned. They are learning to be confident in their personal beliefs.

EMPOWERED

They are learning to take ownership and responsibility for themselves and their learning. They can ask for support when needed and know who to go to for help. They also see when others need support and are willing to step in.
