Online Resources

> Due to the sensitive nature of Remembrance Day topics, we recommend that parents guide their students in conversations while using these suggested resources.

Government of Canada

Veterans Week

The Government of Canada's website for Veterans Week features stories about Canadians who served their country and made significant contributions to commemoration. Explore the Canadian Armed Forces around the world to discover how Canadians continue to defend peace and freedom worldwide. Primary and middle school students would enjoy the Learning Resources page, which includes various research activities and hands-on resources. Learn more about Indigenous Veterans, who are remembered on November 8 each year, by exploring the Government of Canada website and watching this video from the Minister of National Defence.

Veteran's Affairs Canada

Veterans' Week Learning Resources FREE print and digital products!
This includes a mobile app, lesson plans and free poppy seeds, to name a few products. To explore what is available or order some of their free Veterans' Week learning products for students aged 5 to 18, visit their online ordering site. Request hard copies for your class at no charge. Digital versions of all of these materials – and much more – are also available on the Government of Canada website.

Canadian War Museum

Canadian War Museum Remembrance Day Resources The Canadian War Museum is Canada's national museum of military history and one of the world's most respected museums for the study and understanding of armed conflict.

Flanders Fields Music

On the Flanders Fields Music website, students can explore the history of the song "In Flanders Fields" by reading about John McCrae, watching videos, and downloading sheet music and MP3 recordings.

Revision #16
Created 31 October 2024 22:41:52 by Karen Roeck
Updated 23 October 2026 21:24:35 by Cynthia Duncalfe