Overview Statement

At HCOS, we believe education is most meaningful when it is rooted in identity in Christ and leads to deeper relationship with Him. We offer an environment where each learner is drawn to discover the purposes and passions that God has instilled in them. Students benefit from authentic individualized and relational support as they hone skills to pursue their goals and compassionately engage with the world. Our programs empower students to take ownership of their learning and graduate as responsible and engaged citizens with a sense of agency, independence, and voice. Through continually improving our innovative programs, we offer students opportunities to learn in ways that accommodate and anticipate a dynamic future. HCOS' strategic plan demonstrates our commitment to developing internal and external educational networks that provide students with the best opportunities as they discover God's unique purpose.

Our Strategic Priorities

Invest in deep relationship with learners to foster holistic development.

Grow our innovative and thriving learning ecosystem.

Expand our intentional connections with local, provincial, and international networks.
