

What in the World?

What in the World? (Grades 5-10) is a current events resource that enhances understanding of current Canadian and international events. The magazine is published eight times a year from September to May. Each issue includes:

- Four news articles
- Relevant background information to enhance understanding of each event or issue
- On-the-line, between-the-line, and beyond-the-line questions
- Assignment to analyze a political cartoon and examine a news photo
- Crossword and quizzes

This subscription is not available to HCOS Registered students.
